VICTORIA'S SON BURIED. Emperor William arrived at Coburg,

at 11:30 a. m. to attend the funeral of the late Dake of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha. He was given an ovation by dense crowds awaiting him at all points along the route.

As soon as the Emperor strived at the castle, the funeral cortege was formed. The Emperor walked in the first rank, between Duke Charles Edward and the prince regent; the Prince of Wales, between the Grand Duke of Hesse and King Ferdinand, of Rou-mania, followed. Then came the Duke of Connaught, the Duke of York, and and endless procession of princes and dukes, representatives of German and foreign sovereigns and courts, naval and military deputations, and officers of the ducal court.

The cortege, entering St. Moritz's

Church, took, up places in the chancel, which had been converted in o a verti-able grove of palm trees. The church was draped in black, with hangings of embroidered ermine. The gloom was relieved at intervals by green pine sprays and silver frieze, and the craped pillars were entwined in garlands. From the organ loit a black valarium was suspended, with the arms and in-itials of the dead duke embroidered in silver. The wreath sent by the dead duke's mother, Queen Victoria, which was placed at the head of the coffin, was composed of scarlet geraniums, with stocks and heliotrope in the scheme of the national colors, and bore he simple and pathetic inscription: From his sorrowing mother." At the foot of the coffin lay an immense wreath of oak leaves, inscribed "From his three sisters."

The most striking feature among the many beautiful floral pieces, was an immense anchor of white flowers, en-twined with a cable of corn flowers, inscribed : 'The British navy mourns its gifted admiral."

Among the wreaths were displayed the duke's orders and decorations. At the close of the simple funeral service the troops fired a salute from the castle square, after which the cortege returned to the castle. During the service the hereditary Prince of Saxe-Meiningen was taken ili and had to be carried to the chaplain's ouse. He soon recovered. Emperor William paid a visit of contolence to the widow of the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha Saturday afternoon and then left for Wilhelmshohe. At 10 o'clock Saturday night the re mains of the duke were carried, by orchlight, with an escort of princes, to the mausoleum in the church yard, and placed in a vault.

CAUGHT IN PERSIAN BOUDOIR .- Arthur W. Patterson, member of the Board of Trade, the Chicago Athletic Club and other organizations, and Mrs. Sue L. Ustick, of St. Louis, have been arrested at Chicago, for immoral con duct. Mrs. Ustick is the wife of E. T. Ustick, secretary of the George D. Bar nard Stationery Company, of Sr. Louis. Patterson utilized one of his Board of Trade codes and began a correspondence with Mrs. Ustick. A letter fell into Mr. Ustick's hands, which he unraveled. Mrs. Ustick then went to Chicago and moved into a flat, where sh was arrested with Mr. Patter-son. According to the officer, Mr. Patterson, when arrested, was attired in a loose-flowing Japanese robe. The apartment was a Persian boudoir, perfumed with incense, and lighted with glimmering redhued lamps.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP? A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possi-ble for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, chee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to de-stroy the germ disease, but allays in-flammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recom-mended many years ago by all druggists in the world. For sale by Ernest L. Allen, Claud M. Lennon, Warfield & Hall, Charles G. Lennon, W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard Troublesome to the Army. During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Colera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such a quick relief. It is for sale by all druggists.
